Fish from or walk for the pure joy of it the grassy banks of eight miles of pristine and private waters on our stretch of the Williamson River. The only sounds are Sand Hill Cranes calling in the meadows, the cries of Canada geese flapping low overhead, and the coyote yelping to his friends in the nearby timber. And, music to the fisherman's ear, the splash of greedy trout taking Black Drakes in June, the unbelievable frenzy of a hex hatch in July, Hoppers in August, and the Mahogany Dunn in September/October
